

SPRC Seminar Program October – November 2008
Wednesday 1 October	The dynamics of receipt of social assistance benefits in the United Kingdom Professor Stephen Jenkins, Director, Institute of Social and Economic Research, University of Essex
Tuesday 7 October	Self neglect and squalor among older people: The ethics of intervention Shannon McDermott, Research Associate, Social Policy Research Centre, UNSW
Tuesday 21 October	Father Care, Father Share in International Perspective: does context matter to the gender division of childcare time? Lyn Craig, Senior Research Fellow and Killian Mullan, research Associate, Social Policy Research Centre, UNSW
Monday 3 November LOCATION TBA	Seminar co-sponsored by the Social Policy Research Centre and the Disability Studies and Research Centre, UNSW  International Rights, Domestic Responsibility: policy and participation for people with disabilities Sarah Parker, Assistant Professor, Department of Disability and Human Development, University of Illinois, Chicago
Tuesday 11 November	Significance of Ownership of aged care facilities in Australia Kathy Tannous, Research Fellow, Social Policy Research Centre, UNSW

All SPRC Seminars are held from 12:30 – 1:30pm in Room 250, Level 2, Robert Webster Building (G14), UNSW unless otherwise specified.

